President's Message

It is my pleasure to say that our faculty and staff appreciate the continuing challenge of changing business and technological environment that has to be dealt with ingenuity, innovation and social responsibility. Our post-graduate and graduate students are provided with proper infrastructure and ample opportunities during their studies; that act like a springboard, transforming 'persons' into 'personalities'.

Our campus experience prepares the students to continuously learn from each other and carves them to become better leaders. I am confident that our students will prove to be excellent team members and will contribute towards the success of their organizations.

Dr. D. L. Patel
President
